Bringing supplies to Canadians and Americans

Werner Enterprises was founded in 1956 in Omaha, Nebraska with just one truck. Today the company is a global transportation provider of freight management and supply chain solutions with more than 7,350 tractors, nearly 25,000 trailers, and over 13,000 employees and independent contractors. Werner ships nearly 20,000 cross-border loads each year between the United States and Canada, delivering to and from every province and 48 states.

These cross-border shipments include retail store merchandise, consumer products, manufactured component products and parts, and grocery items. Werner partners with Union Pacific, also headquartered in Nebraska, to provide effective intermodal solutions that access all major markets in North America.

Bemis Center

Providing space for artists and curators from Canada

Since 1981, the Bemis Center in Omaha has provided artists from around the world with dedicated time, space and resources to conduct research and to create new work through their Residency program. For two years, Québec-based Sylvie Fortin was the Curator-in-Residence at the Bemis Center. In this role, Fortin served as a professional resource to Bemis Center artists-in-residence and the Greater Omaha arts community, and organized exhibitions and public programs. Over the years, several Canadian visual artists have been selected for a Residency.
